Bucknell University
Mechanical Engineering
Visiting Faculty Position(s)

The Mechanical Engineering Department at Bucknell University seeks quality applicants for two or more open-rank visiting faculty positions to begin August 2016. The positions may be extended beyond one year; reappointment would be subject to need and satisfactory performance.

We anticipate the need for faculty with teaching ability in various areas such as thermo-fluids, dynamics, solid mechanics, CAD and solid modeling (SolidWorks-based), and/or mechanical design. We seek individuals with enthusiasm for teaching and the ability to communicate complex technical topics to students. Evidence should be provided for the ability to teach a broad range of mechanical engineering subjects. Candidate applications should identify specific courses that match their expertise.

A successful candidate must be ABD or have a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering or a closely related discipline at time of appointment. Clear evidence of the potential for teaching excellence is essential, and a strong interest in continued professional development is expected. Candidates with an interest in and potential for teaching and interacting effectively with students having diverse backgrounds and perspectives are particularly encouraged to apply.

We seek a teacher-scholar whose experience and expertise will contribute to working effectively with a diverse student body. Bucknell University values a diverse college community and is committed to excellence through diversity in its faculty, staff, and students.

Applications must include a letter of application, a teaching statement, a research statement, and a current C.V. Applicants to provide references upon request. Applications will be reviewed beginning Feb 1, 2016 until the position is filled.

Applications are accepted only through Interfolio By Committee at http://apply.interfolio.com/32276.

About Bucknell

Bucknell University is a private, highly ranked, national liberal arts institution that also offers strong professional programs in engineering, business, education, and music. Located in Central Pennsylvania along the Susquehanna River, Bucknell is nestled in the Borough of Lewisburg, an appealing Victorian-style town ranked as one of America’s best small towns. Lewisburg and the surrounding region offer a unique combination of outdoor recreation opportunities, small-town charm, and appealing amenities such as restaurants, art galleries, an art deco theater, museums, and boutiques. In addition to the many cultural and athletic events offered by the University and the Borough, the surrounding region offers outstanding schools, medical facilities, and an affordable cost of living. For those who crave the city, Bucknell is within an easy three-hour drive to Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C.

Bucknell University, an equal opportunity employer, believes that students learn best in a diverse, inclusive community and is therefore committed to academic excellence through diversity in its faculty, staff, and students. We seek candidates who will be committed to Bucknell's efforts to create a climate that fosters the growth and development of a diverse student body. We welcome applications from members of groups that have been historically underrepresented in higher education.
